"This constitution is the product of significant work by the National Chairs Working Group.

As specified in the Recommendations of the Circulating Minute which is also attached:

- It is my intention to endorse this constitution subject to a small number of immaterial amendments (typos etc) and to advise my agreement to be the initial Director (from WA) for the legal entity.
- By this email I am advising you of progress in the development of this Constitution
- I seek your support to act as the initial Director (from WA) for the legal entity.

Please also note the following:

This matter was considered at the Executive Committee meeting on 9 April. At this meeting, Caroline Knight advised that she has spoken to some of the Chairs of the other Regions and summarised points:

- Good at national level it is being incorporated
- Noted that PHCC can be a member in own right
- Standard constitution – don't know how much will charge but have option to pay or not.

"That the PHCC Executive recommend to the WA Chair of Chairs:

1. Support you [Rob Keogh] to act as the initial Director from WA
2. Support endorsement of the draft Constitution for NRM Regions, subject to minor immaterial amendments
3. Noting the requirement for feedback, the Executive Group will report to the PHCC Board on their resolution to support the Constitution; and

- (b) A notice of a members' resolution must set out the wording of the proposed resolution and be signed by the Members proposing the resolution.
- (c) Separate copies of a document setting out the notice may be signed by Members if the wording is the same in each copy.

- (f) This rule does not limit any other right that a Member has to propose a resolution at a general meeting.

10.2 Company must give notice of proposed resolution

- (a) If the Company has been given a notice under rule 10.1:
 - (i) in time to send the notice of proposed members' resolution to Members with a notice of meeting, it must do so at the Company's cost; or
 - (ii) too late to send the notice of proposed members' resolution to Members with a notice of meeting, then the Members who proposed the resolution must pay the expenses reasonably incurred by the company in giving Members notice of the proposed members' resolution. However, at a general meeting, the Members may pass a resolution that the company will pay these expenses.
- (b) The Company does not need to send the notice of proposed members' resolution to Members if:
 - (i) it is more than 1,000 words long;
 - (ii) the directors consider it may be defamatory;
 - (iii) rule 1.1(d)(ii) applies, and the Members who proposed the resolution have not paid the Company enough money to cover the cost of sending the notice of the proposed members' resolution to Members; or

- (d) Members may sign:
 - (i) a single document setting out the circular resolution and containing a statement that they agree to the resolution, or
 - (ii) separate copies of that document, as long as the wording is the same in each copy.
- (e) The Company may send a circular resolution by email to Members and Members may agree by sending a reply email to that effect, including the text of the resolution in their reply.

11. ENTITLEMENT TO VOTE

11.1 Number of votes

- (a) Each Member entitled to vote has one vote. A Member is entitled to vote if that Member is an Ordinary Member and does not owe the Company any outstanding Membership Fee or other monies.
- (b) Except where a special resolution is required, questions arising at a general meeting must be decided by a majority of votes cast by the Members.

11.2 Casting vote of chairperson

If an equal number of votes is cast for and against a resolution at a meeting of Members, the chairperson does not have a casting vote.

11.3 Decision on right to vote

A Member or Director may challenge a person's right to vote at a meeting of Members. A challenge may only be made at the meeting. A challenge, or any other doubt as to the validity of a vote, must be decided by the chairperson, whose decision is final.

12. HOW VOTING IS CARRIED OUT

12.1 Method of voting

- (a) A resolution put to the vote at a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded under rule 12.2:
 - (i) before the show of hands is taken;
 - (ii) before the result of the show of hands is declared.

- (b) Unless a poll is demanded, the chairperson's declaration of a decision on a show of hands is final.

12.2 Demand for a poll

- (a) A poll may be demanded on any resolution (except a resolution concerning the election of the chairperson of a meeting) by:
 - (i) at least a simple majority of the Members entitled to vote on the resolution; or
 - (ii) the chairperson.
- (b) The demand for a poll does not affect the continuation of the meeting for the transaction of other business and may be withdrawn.

12.3 When and how polls must be taken

If a poll is demanded:

- (a) if the resolution is for the adjournment of the meeting, the poll must be taken immediately and in the manner that the chairperson of the meeting directs;
- (b) in all other cases, the poll must be taken at the time and place in the manner that the chairperson of the meeting directs;
- (c) a person voting who has the right to cast two or more votes need not cast all those votes and may cast those votes in different ways; and
- (d) the result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

13. PROXIES

13.1 Appointment of proxies

13.3 Appointment for particular meeting, standing appointment and revocation

A Member may appoint a proxy to act at a particular general meeting or make a standing appointment and may revoke any appointment. A proxy may, but need not, be a Member.

13.4 Position of proxy if Member present

The appointment of a proxy is not revoked by the Member attending and taking part in the general meeting, but if the Member votes on a resolution, the proxy is not entitled to vote, and must not vote, as the Member's proxy on the resolution.

13.5 More than one current proxy appointments

An appointment of proxy by a Member is revoked (or, in the case of a standing appointment, suspended for that particular meeting) if the Company receives a further appointment of proxy from that Member which would result in there being more than one proxy of that Member entitled to act at a meeting. The appointment of proxy made first in time is the first to be treated as revoked or suspended by this rule.

13.6 Continuing authority

An act done at a general meeting by a proxy is valid even if, before the act is done, the appointing Member:

- (a) dies or becomes mentally incapacitated;
- (b) becomes bankrupt or an insolvent under administration or is wound up; or
