

Soil Microscopy Basics

Get a practical introduction to soil microscopy with this hands-on workshop.

Ideal for farmers and growers with a basic understanding of soil health.

You should attend if you are beginning your soil biology journey, or if you have prior experience and want a refresher.

This FREE workshop will show you how to:

- Use and care for microscopes
- Take and prepare soil samples for microbial assessment
- Identify key soil microorganisms
- Conduct a basic assessment of soil microbial health

When: 845am – 4pm on Tuesday 10 June 2025

Where: Coolup Hall, Murray St, Coolup

RSVP: genevieve.harvey@peel-harvey.org.au or register online:

<https://peel-harvey.org.au/events/introduction-to-soil-microscopy/>

Please RSVP asap as places are limited! Specify any dietary requirements as morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea are provided.

This project is part of Healthy Estuaries WA, a State Government initiative to improve the health of our South West estuaries.